Dear Sir,

I am most grateful to you for your extremely kind letter giving me such helpful advice and suggestions as to my eclipse expedition to your islands, and for the previous hospitality you have extended me.

I have been away for a week or two; hence I trust you will forgive my not having the sooner answered your letter.

My party consists of my friend Mr. W. E. B. Lloyd of London and myself. [Mr. Lloyd & I observed the eclipse of 1927
