

No. Radio Corporation of the Philippines

WEATHER REPORT

September 17, 1927

7 p.m.

The barometers at noon had fallen slightly to moderately in ~~the Philippines~~ Luzon, and had remained almost stationary in the rest of the Philippines, in Guam, Hengkong and Formosa; they had risen moderately to considerably in Japan.

The typhoon was situated at 2 p.m. east of central Luzon, between 124 and 125 longitude, 15 and 16 latitude, moving W by N or WNW.

MANILA OBSERVATORY.