

LIBRARY REPORT FOR 1927

PUBLICATIONS RECEIVED

The publications received during the year 1927, excluding duplicates amounted to 2,627 or 451 more than that of 1926. They consist of books, serial and periodical publications, pamphlets, charts and maps, and were supposed to have been acquired through subscriptions, exchange and comparatively few which were occasionally received. The following are the itemized list according to their classes and the way they were acquired:

AMOUNT AS TO CLASSIFICATION

Miscellaneous-----	1,363
Meteorology-----	780
Astronomy-----	340
Seismology-----	115
Magnetism-----	29
Total-----	2,627

AMOUNT AS TO THE MODE OF ACQUISITION

Through Exchange-----	1,777
Through Subscription and Purchase-----	682
Occasionally received-----	168
Total-----	2,627

BOOKS ACCESSIONED

During this year, the Library has been enriched by 112 volumes, through binding of publications previously received, purchases and gift or exchange. This number indicates an increase of 23 volumes from that of the books accessioned last year. The following table will give a