

CONTENTS AND ILLUSTRATIONS.

TABLE OF CONTENTS.

	Page.
	English.	Spanish.
I. Introduction	5	27
II. Eruptions within historical times	6	28
III. The eruption of January 30, 1911	12	33
1. Preliminary phenomena	12	33
2. The great eruption, January 30, 1911.....	13	34
3. Atmospheric waves	16	36
4. Area of destruction	17	38
5. Seismic movements during and after the principal eruption	21	41
6. Intensity and effects of the earthquakes in the vicinity of the volcano.....	23	43
7. List of earthquakes registered by the seismographs of Manila Observatory, January 27 to February 25, 1911.....	24	44
IV. Conclusion	25	44

ILLUSTRATIONS.

PLATE I. Sketch-map of the Taal Volcano region.

II. Barograms, January 30, 1911.

III. Portion of the record made by the Vicentini seismograph.

IV. Portion of the record made by the horizontal pendulums.

V. FIG. 1. Crater of Taal Volcano before the eruption.

2. Crater of Taal Volcano after the eruption.

VI. FIG. 1. Eruption during the afternoon of January 30, 1911, Showing cloud sweeping down the volcano slopes.

2. Mud and stones in eruption, January 30, 1911.

VII. FIG. 1. A tree 15 centimeters in diameter broken by the force of the eruption and shredded like a whisk broom by the mud driven by the force of the eruption.

2. General view of the barrio of Pirapiraso, volcano island, after the eruption.