

The May 9th Eclipse

Single, May 10, 1929

= Duration of Totality =

Totality began at 3hrs. 28' 26"
and ended at 3hrs. 31' 39"

Therefore the duration of totality is 3 minutes and 13 seconds.

We hereby hold that the above report of the observation of the eclipse is true and very accurate.

Respectfully submitted,

Group A

1. Time keeper — Viradao Santos
2. Observer with smoked glass — Carlos Guanis
3. Observer with no glass — Neimogenes Potente